Child First Advocacy Center

Child First Advocacy Center of Rutland County Provides a safe and supportive environment to assist victims and their families in the discovery, intervention, treatment and prevention of child sexual abuse.

GLANCE OF 2024

- CFAC served 121 Victims and 118 families, highlighting our ongoing commitment to addressing the needs of children affected by abuse in Rutland County. Our fully accredited center has been a trusted resource since its establishment in 1995 and has maintained accreditation by the National Children's Alliance since 2004.

Core Services Provided:

- Multi-Agency Coordination: We collaborate with trained professionals from law enforcement, the Department of Children and Families, the State Attorney's office, and mental health agencies to ensure a comprehensive response to child abuse cases.
- Victim Advocacy: Our advocacy team supports families throughout the investigative process, connecting them with vital resources for recovery and healing.
- Education and Outreach: We provide community education on child abuse prevention, intervention strategies, and the importance of reporting suspected abuse.

➤ According to the National Children's Alliance, over 700,000 children in the United States are confirmed victims of abuse each year, and many more are likely unreported ("The State of the CAC Movement," National Children's Alliance, 2024).

➤ Impact on Children: The National Children's Alliance estimates that 1 in 10 children will be sexually abused before their 18th birthday, emphasizing the urgent need for preventive measures and support services.
